

June 2025 EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

The Franklin County Commissioners proudly presented the June Employee of the Month award to Gayle Schreiber. Gayle has been employed by Franklin County since August 2016 and serves as a casework supervisor II with the county's children and youth services department. June's Employee of the Month recipient was determined by the Special Thanks and Recognition (STAR) Committee, which received 20 nominations for the June award, six of which were for Gayle. Those who nominated Gayle spoke of her positive attitude and willingness to put her own needs aside in an effort to assist others in her department.

"I've been a county employee for just three months and Gayle has made me feel at home since day one," said one employee. "She always greets you with a smile. She has a positive attitude and great sense of humor, which is important in this department. I always feel I can ask Gayle any question if my supervisor isn't available. She is an inspiration to all around her!"

"Gayle is a mama bear to many of the caseworkers," said one individual. "She remains available anytime to anyone that needs anything. She is always willing to lend a listening ear. Gayle keeps the energy in this stressful job positive. She greets everyone each day with a 'Good morning!' Gayle is also one of the last to leave each day as she will check to make sure everyone is okay."

Another nomination read, "Gayle is one of the best people here at children and youth. She supports her unit as a great and encouraging supervisor. She is supportive of everyone in children and youth. No matter what kind of day she may be having, Gayle is still upbeat, has a smile on her face and stays positive. She knows each and every case of her caseworkers and helps when anyone needs anything. Gayle isn't just an employee of the month but an employee who shows she understands, encourages and is always there for everyone, even on her worst days. Gayle is an employee of a lifetime as she is always there to fill in and take care of staff when they are having a bad day as well. She always seems to put everyone else above herself."

Gayle's outstanding characteristics are attributes that have not gone unnoticed by her peers. Those who work alongside Gayle described her as dedicated, positive, kind, persistent, strong, amicable, responsible, truthful, loyal, caring, engaged, supportive, committed and brave.

The Franklin County Commissioners congratulated Gayle on her recognition and thanked her for her excellent work and for exuding such a high standard of knowledge, leadership and excellence to the employees and residents of Franklin County.
