

December 2025 EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

The Franklin County Commissioners proudly presented the December Employee of the Month award to Stacey Parson. Stacey has been employed by Franklin County since May 2001 and serves as a probation officer in the county's adult probation department. December's employee of the Month recipient was determined by the Special Thanks and Recognition (STAR) Committee, which received 11 nominations for the December award, three of which were for Stacey.

"Officer Stacey Parson has devoted many years of exceptional service to the adult probation department and has consistently proven herself to be an invaluable resource to both her colleagues and the courts," said one nomination. "Since the beginning of her career with Franklin County, she has played an integral role in the probation department and the court system. Her knowledge, experience and willingness to assist others make her someone that staff, attorneys and judges regularly turn to for guidance and support."

"Stacey plays a vital role in the overall court process, with her expertise is regularly sought by district attorneys, defense attorneys and judges, particularly regarding sentencing practices and procedural matters," said another nomination. "Her professionalism and knowledge consistently reflect positively on the adult probation department and contribute to the smooth and effective operation of the courts."

"Throughout her career, Stacey's impact has been immeasurable," stated one employee. "She has positively influenced everyone she works with, from judges to newly hired clerks and officers on their first day. Known for her organization, reliability and professionalism, she consistently goes above and beyond her daily responsibilities to ensure work is completed accurately. Her positive attitude, strong work ethic and genuine concern for her coworkers bring out the best in those around her. Stacey's commitment to service, teamwork and excellence makes her one of the most valued employees in the adult probation department and a tremendous asset to the department, the courts and the county."

Stacey's outstanding characteristics are attributes that have not gone unnoticed by her peers. Those who work alongside her describe her as caring, dedicated, professional, altruistic, hardworking, helpful and someone with expert knowledge, among many other positive qualities.

The Franklin County Commissioners congratulated Stacey on her recognition and thanked her for her excellent work and for exuding such a high standard of knowledge, leadership and excellence to the employees and residents of Franklin County.
